

Wineries Tour

Enjoy a full day tour of the Ksara, Massaya and Kefraya wineries!

Start off in Ksara, in the heart of the Beqaa, by visiting the numerous vineyards producing exquisite wine and arak. With more than 156 years of rich wine making heritage, Chateau Ksara is a fascinating union of tradition, nobility and modernity. Ksara has seen developments in technique such as vines cultivation on wires and the attentive application of advanced science by French oenologists, who watch over the vinification, fermentation and decanting processes.

Then explore Massaya, a bijou winery situated in Tanaïl, the heart of the Bekaa Valley, home to some of the oldest and most original motifs of ancient wines and wine-making. Today, this bijou winery, with its clay-limestone vineyards, nestled between the mountains and the Mediterranean, produce a range of unique wines that captures the spirit of the Levant. The Bekaa is once again proving it can produce great wines and Massaya, whose name is Arabic for the delicate beauty of the Bekaa's twilight, with its French and Lebanese partners is proud to perpetuate this ancient tradition.

The journey concludes at Kefraya, a modern vineyard of about 430 hectares of the domain with a fantastic reputation founded on traditional principles, rounding off an experience not to be missed! Chateau Kefraya's domain can be considered as a work of art. Indeed, a series of parks bearing names of Opera composers such as Verdi or Puccini, and crossed by alleys named after flowers and plants surrounding the castle. It is worth noting that Chateau Kefraya refines the blend of grape varieties following the same scheme as the creation of a new color or a new painting.
