

AFTERNOON TEA

The creation of this thoroughly English institution is credited to a lifelong friend of Queen Victoria, Anna Maria Russell, who was looking for a means of avoiding hunger pangs in the long gap between an early lunch and a late supper.

At the Brighton Met we've been observing this delightful aspect of our nation's culinary heritage for over 125 years. Our Executive Chef has remained faithful to the classic combination of sandwiches, scones, and sweet treats accompanied by a selection of Twinings tea who have been providing exceptional tasting teas since 1706.
