PRODUCT RANGE

Schmoo Honey & Oatmeal

Our honey and oatmeal range is gentle and nourishing, ideal for more of a dry, dehydrated skin. Honey is a natural antiseptic that effectively heals minor skin irritations and blemishes, whilst oatmeal is a natural beauty enhancer which brings radiance and a fresh Schmoovie glow to the skin.

Schmoo Grapefruit & Tangerine

Our grapefruit and tangerine range is great for oily skin as it instantly de-congests and refreshes. Grapefruit and tangerine are bursting with anti-oxidants that fight against free radicals and protect the skin. This range will make you Schmile as grapefruit is mentally uplifting.

Schmoo Vitamin Rich

Our vitamin rich range is Schmashing, designed to fight against the signs of ageing and to promote cellular renewal. Packed with collagen and our amazing coenzyme Q10 vitamin, this range is highly effective in plumping out fine lines and reducing the appearance of wrinkles.

Schmoo Fig & Frangipani

Our fig and frangipani body range smells Schmootiful, but not only does it smell great it has amazing benefits to the skin. Frangipani is a powerful anti-inflammatory and fig provides vitamins and minerals to give the skin a healthy nourished glow.

Schmoo Cranberry & Pomegranate

Our cranberry and pomegranate body range is delicious, full of vitamin C this Schmoozy range is a great anti-oxidant that will protect the skin.

Schmoo Apricot & Peach

Our apricot and peach range is great for all skin types. Apricot and peach match the skins natural oil balance by 99% which means it works in perfect harmony with your skin. With multi-acting marula oil, skin is deeply nourished and protected.

Schmoo Blackberry, Basil & Lime

Our blackberry, basil and lime range is a refreshing range which will deep clean and draw out impurities. This range acts as a wonderful decongestant but also calms and soothes the skin. Whilst the Schmoo products in this range are ideal to target concerns common with men, women can also benefit from the blackberry, basil and lime extracts.

Schmoo Acai & Goji Berry Microdermabrasion

Our acai and goji berry microdermabrasion range is a natural Schuper berry range like no other. The ingredients give dramatic results whilst remaining gentle and free of the harsh chemicals you would usually expect to see. Goji berry is considered to be the "magical fruit", with outstanding properties. This range is highly anti-ageing, perfect to reduce imperfections and will enhance the benefits of other Schmoo products.

Schmoo Lavender Woods & Vanilla

Our lavender woods and vanilla range is designed as a treat for Schmummies, ideal for use during and after pregnancy. This delicate range with calming lavender and fragrant vanilla has great benefits for both Schmummies and baby Schmoos.
