TOUR 1

Discover the Old City
HALF DAY MORNING TOUR

Hippodrome
The Hippodrome has been a center for sports and entertainment in the old Constantinople, the Roman capital, as well as very important center for politics, as sports and politics were closely knitted up at these times. No wonder that the Hippodrome has been a starting point for revolts and political movements throughout the history.

Echoes of cries by slaves riding chariots in ferocious races, and the passionate words of intellectuals and poets that lit the flame of public movements are still reminiscent, to those with a powerful imagination.

Sultan Ahmet Cami / The Blue Mosque
It was the dying wish of Sultan Ahmet, who passed at a young age at the 17th century, due to a disease, to finish the mosque so that his name would live forever.

It is called Blue Mosque by visitors who fell in the awe of the delicate designs of Ottoman blues that decorate the walls of the shrine. The floral patterns of the tiles, as well as well-lighted, capacious internal spaces are a testimonial of the eternity of the soul.

Ayasofya / The Hagia Sophia
The “Shrine of Holy Wisdom”, the marvellous Byzantine basilica built in the 6th century. Marks the true beginning of the golden age of Justinianus, the conqueror of Africa and Italy, who achieved lasting fame through the complete revision of all Roman law, resulting in what is known today as the Corpus Juris Civilis.

The domed construction of the sanctuary is an architectural innovation, and was so richly and artistically decorated that Justinian proclaimed, “Solomon, I have outdone thee!” Mankind would have to wait for over millennia before being able to build a cathedral that would surpass the gigantic size of Hagia Sophia.

It was converted to a Mosque following the Ottoman conquest of the city, by the order of Sultan Mehmed the Conqueror in 1453, as the young Sultan fulfilled a divine premonition by the Holy Prophet Mohammad himself. In 1935 the building was converted to a museum, by the executive order of Mustafa Kemal Ataturk, the founder of modern Turkey.

TOUR PROGRAMME

Topkapi Palace
The Topkapi Palace has been the Imperial residence of the Ottoman Sultans from the 15th to the 19th century. Its design, initially devised by Sultan Mehmed himself and then enhanced by Sinan, hides clues of the rituals of the structure of Ottoman hierarchy and the running of state affairs.

Home to the imperial treasury and the cabinet, as well as being the site of the barracks for the Janissaries, the elite of the army, every corner of the palace tells about the splendor of the Ottomans. Apart from the priceless treasury, a distinguished collection of Chinese porcelains, holy relics, sultan's costumes and imperial weaponry are exhibited in different sections of the palace.

Rustem Pasha Mosque
A 16th century Ottoman Mosque, which was built in the name of the treasurer and the son-in-law of Sulaiman the Magnificent, before he fell out of the Sultan’s favor and removed from service.

It is known to host the best examples of handmade Iznik tiles, in both interior and exterior walls; and, of course, it is seated on a complex of shops, which will give you a taste of the city’s vivid local colors.
