

A stylized, high-contrast illustration in black and red. The background is a vibrant red. Overlaid on this are intricate black line-art patterns. At the top, a dragon's head and neck are depicted, facing right, with its mouth slightly open showing teeth. Below the dragon, a crane is shown in profile, facing right, with its long neck curved downwards. The crane's body is covered in a grid-like pattern of small squares. The bottom of the image features swirling, cloud-like patterns. The overall style is reminiscent of traditional Japanese art, such as woodblock prints or textile designs.
