The Promenade was strategically designed with not only the meeting planner in mind, but the attendees as well. Features, unknown to the guest, make The Promenade accessible and flexible throughout the year.

- Outdoor tents can be set up from the Sky Terrace to the Grande Lawn with covered walk-ways linking each Tent as well as the Tents to the Ballroom foyers. Tents can total 20,300 ft².
- Food Trucks, cars and elephants have easy access to drive directly into The Promenade through an exclusive entrance.
- Dedicated concrete stage area for music performances includes an electrical connection pull box.
- On the Grand Lawn and Fountain Plaza, artificial turf grass was used so that it is evergreen, providing a constituent walking surface that does not need to be replaced annually like natural grass and most importantly, it is easy for women to walk on in their heels.
- All areas are great for team building functions such as group exercise classes: Tai Chi, Yoga and Zumba.
- There are strategically placed connection boxes that have chases in them to provide power connections to prime areas so that attendees are not tripping over power cords.
- Lighting is at a low level pedestrian scale keeping the space intimate and unobtrusive to other functions that may be occurring in other areas of the property.
- The biggest obstacle of hosting an outdoor event in Florida is the chance of rain, but the design team has overcome this by creating a series of underdrains that will allow the entire Promenade to drain completely within minutes of an afternoon shower.
