

Things To Do in Philadelphia

Entertainment

Penn's Landing Playhouse

Enjoy this waterfront theater at the Independence Seaport Museum; showing a plethora of iconic plays in a contemporary setting. *MENTION "PLAYHOUSE" and receive 10% discount on your Meal at Keating's Rope & Anchor.

BB&T Pavilion

Enjoy a great show or concert at this wonderful, grand outdoor performing arts amphitheater. Transforming into a smaller and enclosed venue for the winter, they are opened all year long bringing you terrific performances here for your enjoyment.

Riverfront Concerts

Enjoy some terrific music and great atmosphere when you take in a concert at the Delaware River Waterfront. There are some great shows headed our way, we hope you will come on down and enjoy the show!

SugarHouse Casino

Pack your bags, put on your poker face and get lucky in Philadelphia! SugarHouse Casino is a fun and exciting casino entertainment development along the Delaware River and just minutes from the Hilton Philadelphia at Penn's Landing. The 1,300,000 square foot casino complex is built on the 22-acre site of the former Jack Frost Sugar Refinery, giving it the name "Sugar House". The $550 million complex includes a state-of-the-art casino floor with 3,000 slot machines and tables, a variety of retail and dining outlets and free customer parking in a 3,000 car garage.

Sesame Place

Traveling with the kids? Then head on over to Sesame Place in Langhorne, PA. Spend the day with your favorite Sesame Street characters, while you go on exciting rides, play fun games and line up along the street while the parades march through the park. If you're traveling during the summer months, don't forget your bathing suit so you can enjoy all of the refreshing water rides. Sesame Place is fun for the whole family.

