

gour•mand noun

a person who takes delight in the art of eating and drinking; loves to uncover the best in culinary cuisine; a foodie.

While fish tacos and the best Mexican food above the border are what San Diego is most known for, you do not want to miss out on what the rest of the food scene has to offer. From the bustling Gaslamp Quarter to the authentic feeling Little Italy and beyond, San Diego has a diverse spread that is sure to tickle the fancy of every foodie.

IF YOU HAVE ONE HOUR

- 1 Head to Liberty Public Market and taste your way through all of the food fare options

IF YOU HAVE ONE DAY

- 2 Start your day with a nice walk over to Breakfast Republic in Downtown San Diego. Don't miss their daily specials, and their delicious Cold Brew and the Jurassic Pork
- 3 For lunchtime, head to the Headquarters for a fresh twist on Mexican street food at Puesto. Order the Esquite appetizer to share, or to simply eat yourself, no judgement
- 4 Looking for a breathtaking view with Dinner? Go to Mister A's for a great view and an even better dinner. Make sure you save room for one of the delicious desserts
